Intentions of terrorists:

Not all terrorists have the same intentions. The following are some of the main reasons why they chose to become terrorists.

- Some terrorists want to create fear in public.
- To catch the media attention.
- To get money easily.
- To decrease the country’s economy by discouraging foreign investments and tourists.
- To make their religion as the only religion in the world or to make it as the supreme religion.

Causes:

- Negligence or injustice by the government.
- Discrimination.
- Perceived negligence/discrimination.

- Extreme nationalism.
- Unemployment.

Solutions:

- Eradicating poverty.
- Solving the unemployment problem
- Creating awareness among people, so that they won't get influenced/radicalised to join in terrorism.
- Severe punishments for creating panic among the public.
- Deploying personnel to counter-terrorism.
- Justice must not be denied and it should not be delayed too.
- Everyone must know the true meaning of religion and also the truth that killing people is against God.

Conclusion:

Terrorism can be completely eradicated if Govt. concentrate mainly on the causes of it because prevention is better than cure. We all have to join our hands to make the world a better place to live in.
